

Consultation in English

Welcome to Ann Vet Clinic.

Living in foreign country with your pets makes you happy but sometimes can be difficult.

Ann Vet Clinic can help those who are concerned about the life with their lovely pets.

We provide medical service for dogs and cats only and consultation in English. But some of the staff are not confident in English communication. Thank you for your understanding. Our staff dedicate to you all and your essential pets.

Please check our closed days on this website and make an appointment on the phone.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask us at any time.
